An attorney authorized to practice law in New Mexico who represents a party before the WCA may also issue and sign a subpoena as an officer of the court on behalf of the WCA. Subpoenas are not considered discovery and do not require good cause or approval from a judge.

J. Appointment of interpreter:
(1) It is the responsibility of the parties to determine if interpretive services are necessary.
(2) An interpreter may be appointed by the judge, director, or mediator. The interpreter shall be court-certified, except that a non-certified interpreter may serve at mediation conferences.
(3) The employer shall be responsible for the cost and arrangement of a qualified interpreter for the hearing or mediation conference. This responsibility may fall to the uninsured employers' fund when named as a party.

K. Motions: All motions, except those made in open court, shall be written and comply with the New Mexico district court rules of civil procedure.

L. Settlement/pre-trial conferences: The judge shall have discretion to schedule settlement conferences. A settlement conference facilitated by the assigned judge shall require the consent of all parties either on the record or in writing.

M. Orders: Proposed orders or other documents requiring a judge's signature shall not be filed with the clerk but shall be submitted directly to the judge.

N. Admissibility of evidence:
(1) Live medical testimony shall not be permitted, except by an order of the judge.

(a) personnel records, payroll records, or other employment files for worker;
(b) pre-injury medical records of treatment received for a period of 10 years prior to the date of injury through the time of hearing on the merits;

(3) On motion of a party, or by stipulation of the parties, a judge may treat admitted medical records and reports of authorized health care providers and independent medical examination as testimony for any relevant purpose other than to establish causation connection pursuant to Section 52-1-28 NMSA 1978.

O. Continuance of hearing: A judge may continue an adjudication hearing for good cause shown. All discovery, disclosure, and exchange deadlines shall be extended by a continuance unless otherwise ordered.

P. Trials and other hearings:

(2) Failure to appear at a hearing after proper notice and without good cause may result in the imposition of sanctions.
(3) The employer shall make all necessary arrangements and pay all costs incurred for telephonic conference calls. The director or judge may appear telephonically for the conference call.
(4) All hearings shall be recorded by audio tape recording or by any other method approved by the director.
(5) Prior to commencement of the adjudication hearing, the parties shall confer with the court monitor to ensure that all exhibits are properly marked. Any exhibit to be jointly tendered shall be marked and offered as a joint exhibit. All other exhibits shall be marked by party and exhibit number or letter. Depositions shall be marked as exhibits.
(6) Under exceptional circumstances and in the interest of justice, a judge has discretion to direct or allow supplementation of evidence within 10 days of the close of the adjudication hearing.

Q. Consolidated cases:

(1) A judge may order the consolidation of cases when the issues or facts in dispute in the cases are common or when consolidation will expedite resolution of the issues or facts in dispute.

(2) A party may request an order for consolidation of cases by filing a motion requesting consolidation in each case sought to be consolidated and serving each party and their counsel, if any, for each case sought to be consolidated.

(3) Motions to consolidate cases will be adjudicated by the final judge assigned to the case with the lowest case number.

R. Release of medical records:

(1) A judge shall decide medical record disputes. If no judge has been assigned, the clerk shall appoint a judge upon a party filing an application to judge for release of medical records.

(2) An application to judge for the release of medical records shall be allowed notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, and shall be disposed of separate and apart from all rule provisions and procedures pertaining to resolution of other disputes arising from a claim for benefits.

(3) The judge will determine whether the protected health information in controversy is material to the resolution of any matter presently at issue or likely to be at issue in the administration of the claim and shall order the release of protected health information upon agreement of the parties or a finding of materiality by a preponderance of evidence.

(4) A bench order or formal order of release of medical records shall have the force of law with respect to the parties and to the HCP or medical facility.

(5) If an HCP or medical facility fails to provide records after a judge has ordered the release of records pursuant to this rule, then the party to receive the records may notify the HCP or medical facility through My E-File of the obligation to produce the records and an endorsed copy of the order. If the records are not produced within five days of service of the notice, the payer's obligation to timely pay shall be tolled until the actual production of the records.

(6) If any judge involved in the adjudication of the case finds that the withholding of records of health information after an order to produce has obstructed the efficient administration or adjudication of a case, then the judge may schedule a hearing to determine if the withholding of records was unreasonable. If the judge finds after notice and an opportunity to be heard that the withholding of records by the HCP or medical facility is unreasonable, the director may find the HCP or medical facility in violation of this rule and assess a penalty pursuant to Section 52-1-61 NMSA 1978 (1990).

S. Independent Medical Examinations

(1) An IME may address any medical issue in dispute between the parties, including the causal relationship to the accident. At the judge's discretion, relevant medical records from up to 10 years prior to the claimed date of accident may be provided to the IME provider.

(2) A "limited IME" means a medical examination of a worker by a provider other than a previously designated health care provider upon whom the parties have agreed, or the judge has appointed, for the limited purpose of determining the reasonableness and necessity of specific care ordered by an authorized HCP. Unless otherwise ordered, relevant medical records not more than one year prior to the claimed date of accident may be sent to the limited IME provider. An evidentiary hearing to decide the reasonableness and necessity of the proposed treatment shall be held no more than 90 days of receipt of the limited IME report. Unless otherwise ordered, medical evidence allowed at this hearing is limited to the depositions of the authorized HCP and the limited IME provider. The 90 day hearing period may be extended by order of court for good cause shown, including but not limited to the unavailability of the ordering provider or the limited IME provider.
